

DISTRICT GIRL SCOUTS IN FIRST CAMP

GIRL TROOPS ENJOY WEEK'S ENCAMPMENT

Twenty-two Members of No. 6 Spend Week at Great Falls Under Canvas.

To Girl Scout Troop No. 6 goes the distinction of experiencing the first real encampment in the District and vicinity. Mrs. S. A. Mooers, captain, assisted by Miss Margaret A. Cushman, was in charge.

OUTING IS PLANNED BY TAKOMA TROOP

Chain Bridge Probably Will Be Chosen by Scouts for Overnight Encampment.

Plans for an overnight outing are being considered by members of Boy Scout Troop No. 21, of Takoma Park. It is almost certain that Chain Bridge will be the point chosen, and that their troop will join Troop No. 33, now in camp at that place under the supervision of Scoutmaster Harry G. Lugenebeck.

OUTING FOR GIRL SCOUTS

A number of Girl Scouts are planning to attend the first annual excursion of the Street Safety Association of the District, to be held at Marshall Hall next Friday.

Among the Girl Scouts who participated in the outing were: Margaret Cushman, Helen H. Daly, Gladys F. Rahn, Helen Gleason, DeVee Kolar, Margaret Greeley, Margaret Gempie, Anna Cushman, Gertrude Coon, Melba Jones, Josephine Greeley, Isabella Coto, Kathleen Culverwell, Dorothy Leach, Elizabeth Keating, and Jessie I. Collins.
